COMMISSIONER BRENNAN replies to the allegations made by Prof. CHANDLER, in his letter to Mayor Grant, pointing out defects in the execution of the new Street Cleaning law. The Commissioner does not deny that street sweepings are left for hours in the gutters ; that covered carts are not used in the removal of rubbish and ashes; that the block system of hand sweeping has not been established and that carls are still stored in the street. But he explains that rough weather has prevented the scows from going to sea!
